Phillip Dutton wins Inaugural StableView Advanced Horse Trials

Attwood crew worked hard to make the best arenas for Stable View and we couldn't be more pleased. It has been a pleasure watching various events taking place at these beautiful arenas.

The Attwood Team, led by President Nick Attwood was there in full force, ensuring the footing stayed in top notch condition for the event. Attwood had also put up a booth at the event.

The boys are back in town and making a splash in Aiken as Stable View Farm successfully completed its first inaugural Advanced event to rave reviews. The crew really went for it when they opted to run all three phases on Saturday, but the show went on without a hitch, and Phillip Dutton and Boyd Martin laid claim to many of the top slots.

As he did in the three-star at Plantation Field two weeks ago, Phillip nabbed first and third, this time with Z claiming the top spot over barnmate and Plantation Field winner Mr Candyman. Once again, Boyd Martin managed to split up the hat trick to claim second place on Welcome Shadow and fourth place aboard Steady Eddie.

Our New Marketing Book is now ready

A few months back, we had given you a sneak preview into our new marketing book, something that had kept us busy over most of the summer. We are now delighted to announce that the book is ready, and is lying in our offices, ready to be sent out.

Apart of having loads of pictures, our book also features some of our top riders, and has case studies about some of the most challenging and iconic projects that we have carried out.

We hope you enjoy reading it as much as we did writing it :)

To request your copy, please visit our website and fill out the enquiries form.
